Have you had any additional experience working with people with disabilities?

If admitted as a peer tutor, how do you plan to help a classroom teacher?

Why do you want to be a peer tutor?

Peer tutors are often asked to take on special assignments. Are you willing to take on assignments as needed?

Additionally, peer tutors are trusted with confidential information and required by law to abide by confidentiality statutes. Are you willing to accept this responsibility as a peer tutor?

There is zero planned down time within your peer tutoring assignment. Are you prepared to be creative in your approach to supporting other students so that you may remain actively engaged in your supporting role?

I understand Academic Peer Tutoring is a program with curricular expectations alongside a classroom support role. These positions require largely independent individuals and rely on honest and independent efforts. Peer Tutors must uphold the pillars of Ryle: Service, Respect, Responsibility, and Integrity. By signing here, you agree to the statements above and are willing to uphold the duties of the position.
