- c. Good News Report –
 - i. Congratulations were offered to 8th grader, Jessica Leigh who received a $300 award from the Simon Kenton Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution for her Art Work.
 - ii. OMS Cheerleaders were recognized by Gary Moore, Boone County Judge Executive for their recent National Championship win at Jamfest Nationals. They received a proclamation that March 11th, 2014 was Ockerman Middle School Cheerleader Day.
 - iii. The upcoming Book Fair Family Night promises to be an excellent event! Tuesday night, OMS families will enjoy a Spaghetti Dinner provided by the PTSA, performances by the Jazz Band and Chorus, as well as the opportunity to shop at the Scholastic Book Fair.
 - iv. OMS Lego League Teams were recognized at the March Board of Education Meeting and will be performing at an upcoming City Council Meeting.
- d. Report from Council of Councils – Robin Bisig reported on the March 18th meeting.
 - i. Recent Community Conversations were productive and will be continued with visits to school to speak with students and teachers. Goal is to develop a Strategic Plan with focus teams in specific areas by the end of June.
 - ii. Gallup poll results have been sent to schools. Students received scores based on their responses in the areas of “hope, engagement, and well-being”. Schools are encouraged to use this data during needs assessment analysis.
 - iii. CSIPs should be undergoing regular implementation and impact checks. For each goal (determined by KDE), councils should address, “where are we and what impact has it had?”

iv. Leadership teams made up of teachers, Central Office staff, Community & University Representatives are meeting periodically to explore and prepare for the Next Generation Science Standards with a preliminary focus on the standards and practices.

iv. Progress on Program Reviews should also be reviewed regularly by Councils. Documentation should be based on experiences that are embedded in content.
