Review of Staff Allocations for 2018-2019

Ms. Payne reviewed the staffing allocations for 2018-2019. The following certified positions were eliminated. . .two Math, two ELA, two Social Studies, and two Science. In addition, Health will no longer be a separate class; the content will be covered within the Physical Education curriculum. Practical Living/Careers will not be filled. A Reading Remediation position will be added. In total, nine positions were eliminated. Pending approval of the state budget, one of those positions may be replaced.

From Administrative Staff, one vice principal position has been eliminated. Pending approval of the state budget, that position may be replaced.

From Classified Staff, one para-educator position has been eliminated. Pending approval of the state budget, that position may be replaced.

Ms Payne also informed the council that one of our Special Education positions has been eliminated.

Council reviewed the allocations and signed the necessary documents.

Adjournment

Council adjourned at 4:29PM by consensus.
